Opportunities for Entrepreneurship through Agriculture Programmes

Friday, 22nd July, 2022 at 11.30 am

About the Webinar

The agriculture sector supports two-third of rural population by providing livelihood opportunities. Open and distance learning provides educational opportunities to the disadvantaged section of the society. Education through ODL can be an effective tool for skilling and reskilling in the agriculture sector. The school of agriculture is offering a number of skill and entrepreneurial educational programmes through open and distance learning mode in the area of agriculture and allied sectors. The experiences of the entrepreneurial alumni motivates the masses to acquire the knowledge and skills through the programmes of this school who further venture into setting up new enterprises and startups.

The proposed webinar will be organized with the following objectives:

- ♦ To sensitize the target group about the entrepreneurship in agriculture sector through different programmes of the school of agriculture.
- ♦ To motivate the stakeholders to acquire the knowledge and skills through ODL/online learning in agriculture.

Target Audience

- ♦ General Public, IGNOU alumni, learners, 10+2 pass out, students of agriculture/veterinary universities/Self Help Groups.
